

THURSDAY, MAY 20

STORY/STEREO: HYBRID LITERATURE/MUSIC EVENT

Featuring The Writer's Center's Emerging Writer Fellows William Archila and Allison Amend. Musical guest to be announced.

8 P.M.

FRIDAY, MAY 21

CREATIVITY CROSSING BORDERS

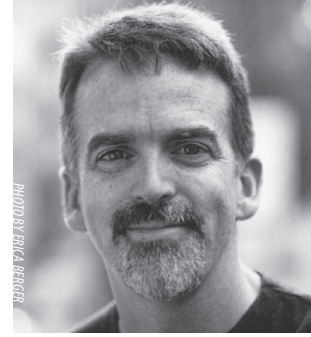

Artists discuss their approaches to creating work. Featuring Bill Warrell, Askia Muhammad, Amy Souza, and Christylez Bacon.

7 P.M.

WORKS IN PROGRESS FILM SCREENING

Romantic Warriors looks at how young bands of today have transformed Progressive music into something new. Featuring filmmakers Erica Ginsberg, José Zagarra Holder, and Adele Schmidt. Sponsored by Docs in Progress.

9 P.M.

litartlantic

DC's free three-day extravaganza of film, music, literature, & theatre at The Writer's Center

SATURDAY, MAY 22

THE WRITER'S LIFE: A REPORT FROM THE FIELD

David A. Taylor, C. M. Mayo, Alan Elsner, and Kevin Quick discuss their lives as professional working writers. Sponsored by American Independent Writers.

12-1 P.M.

THE HIVE @ LITARTLANTIC

Artists and arts organizations will convene to create an opportunity for audiences to connect directly with literary, songwriting, film, and theatre artists and organizations.

12-4 P.M.

YOUNG SONGWRITERS' SHOWCASE

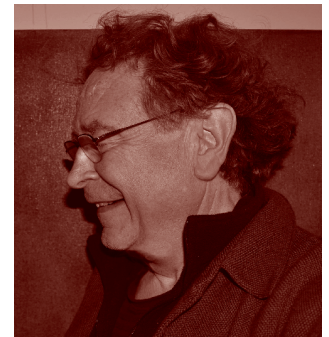

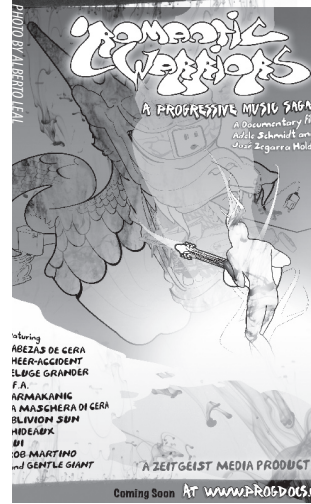

Featuring René Moffatt, Alex Culbreth, and Margot MacDonald. Sponsored by Songwriters' Association of Washington.

1-2:15 P.M.

WORKSHOPS FOR CHILDREN

Join Round House's teaching artists as they inspire your children to act, create plays, and perform! Sponsored by Round House Theatre.

2-3 P.M.

 To read more about the events, visit the LitArtlantic Facebook page.

WWW.WRITER.ORG

301-654-8664 4508 WALSH STREET, BETHESDA, MD 20815

Sponsored by

The Songwriters' Association of Washington

The Writer's Center is sponsored in part by Arts & Humanities Council of Montgomery County and Maryland State Arts Council. The Writer's Center gratefully acknowledges assistance received from the Cultural Alliance of Greater Washington's Business Volunteers for the Arts Program.

